Heart Sculpture Installed in Bel Air to Celebrate the Arts

(Bel Air, MD) - - The Harford County Cultural Arts Board, a commission of the Harford County Department of Community Services, recently worked with four artists to create a beautiful Heart sculpture. It's located at 2 S. Bond Street in front of the Mary Risteau District Court Building.

Talented artists Robin Capecci, Alexandra Kopp, Barbara Love and Sandy Norris worked many hours to create a one-of-a-kind art piece celebrating the arts in Harford County. Titled "Creating Community through the Arts", the Heart sculpture is a part of a Bel Air Downtown Alliance project.

It enhances the public space in and around downtown Bel Air and establishes the downtown area as an art destination.

The Harford County Cultural Arts Board, located at 319 S. Main Street, Bel Air, MD, is a commission granted by the Harford County Council that serves to encourage the growth and stability of cultural organizations in Harford County.
